

Celebrate the International Year of Languages: Travel round the world in a day!

Sunday 28 September 2008, 10am-5pm

- Explore the many languages of the Canberra region
- Enjoy music, dance and food from many cultures

Join a free workshop! Try your hand at Arabic, Greek, Korean, Indonesian, Mandarin, Spanish, or an indigenous language; explore the Cyrillic script or Japanese writing; make a podcast in another language, hear how languages can be a career asset ...

Roam around the stalls and discover the world's languages!
Find out how and where they are taught in the Canberra region

Receive a 'global passport' and get it stamped for each language you know or learn about on the day.

Raising a child in more than one language?

Share your experiences with other parents, hear some success stories, and discover more about the benefits of bilingualism (11.30am-12.30pm)

Have an opinion about language education in the ACT?

Talk to the politicians and leaders who make the policies (2pm-3pm)

Free admission Fun for all ages

WHERE? University of Canberra: Main Concourse, Building 1 and Building 2
For more details, contact Faiz on 6201 2333 or email mandy.scott@canberra.edu.au